Competition law compliance for non-profit organisation: Cheating or competing?

Speakers – Biographies

Antoine DRUETZ became Associate Partner with EY Law in 2020. He deals with general corporate law as well as with mergers and acquisitions. Antoine has been practicing non-profit law for more than 15 years. Based on his in-depth experience with numerous well-known Belgian and European (international) associations and foundations, he founded the Non-Profit and Trade Associations team which he is heading now for 6 years. Antoine has developed a broad expertise in dealing with non-profit associations, charities, and trade organisations. He has developed a specific expertise in (i) structuring and restructuring (with cross-border aspects) of legal entities, and (ii) designing complex governance systems for (groups of) not-for-profit legal entities.

Margarita PERISTERAKI is a qualified lawyer, with more than 20 years of experience. She joined EY Law in May 2017. Her practice focuses on EU Competition law and EU litigation before the Court of Justice of the EU. She regularly advises and represents clients in merger cases, involving complex substantive and procedural issues before the EU Commission and national authorities. In conjunction with merger control, Margarita also advises clients on Foreign Direct Investment Screening Regulations, where she has represented clients in high profile cases. Margarita regularly advises clients on competition compliance of agreements, horizontal cooperation as well as on unilateral conduct cases. She has represented and advised several associations on competition law compliance issues.
